CHIEF ARVOL

LOOKING HORSE

STANDING WITH STANDING ROCK

#NODAPL TEACH-IN 2-4 PM, USDAN 108

This 90-minute rapid teach-in will address key issues and important FAQs about the Dakota Access Pipeline (DAPL), its environmental costs, the indigenous sovereignty and other legal issues, and the #NoDAPL political and social movements that have emerged in solidarity with the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe and their allies who oppose the construction of the pipeline. Facilitators: Jacob Doherty (Anthropology), Maria John (American Studies), J. Kehaulani Kauanui (American Studies), and Dana Royer (Environmental Studies).

RECEPTION 4-4:30 PM, DFC

PROPHECIES, WORLD PEACE, AND GLOBAL HEALING: THE RETURN OF THE WHITE BUFFALO 4:30 PM, DFC

Chief Arvol Looking Horse is the 19th Keeper of the Sacred White Buffalo Calf Pipe and Bundle and spiritual leader of the Lakota Nation (Lakota, Nakota, Dakota) of South Dakota. Chief Looking Horse's prayers have opened numerous sessions of the United Nations, presidential inaugurations, and his many awards include the Juliet Hollister Award from the Temple of Understanding, a Non-Governmental Organization with Consultation Status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council. A tireless advocate of maintaining traditional spiritual practices, Chief Looking Horse is the spiritual advisor to the annual Chief Big Foot Ride which memorializes the massacre of Big Foot's band at Wounded Knee. He has also become a global spokesperson for the environment. He lives on the Cheyenne River Reservation. The Chief also serves as a spiritual advisor to the #NoDAPL anti-pipeline protest movement currently taking place outside the Standing Rock Reservation in Cannonball, North Dakota.
